

WEDNESDAY - You have given us the Holy Spouses, Mary and Joseph as our Patrons; — through their intercession help us to draw closer to You so that we may live our consecration to the fullest.

TUESDAY - By the life and example of our Founder, You teach us to be humble; — grant that in our service to others, we may have a preferential option for the poor, the neglected, and those in difficulty, without expecting anything in return.

MONDAY - Our Father Founder placed himself and his life entirely in Your hands; — help us each day to learn how to entrust ourselves entirely to Your Divine Providence.

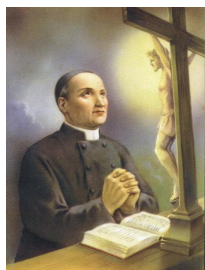

SUNDAY - Our Father Founder invites us to be totally available for the preaching of the Gospel; — help us to share with all people the joy of Your Resurrection.

EVENING PRAYERS

THURSDAY - Through the intercession of the Holy Spouses, Mary and Joseph, to whom we entrust ourselves with filial confidence; — guide us in our spiritual and apostolic renewal, so that we may be a good example of those we meet in our ministry, especially young people.

FRIDAY - Lord you have left us living signs of Your passion in Your Sacred Stigmata; — grant that we may learn to offer ourselves each day in union with Your sacrifice.

SATURDAY - Lord, imitating the trusting surrender of the Holy Spouses, Mary and Joseph, — grant that we, as a religious family, may learn to choose whatever corresponds more to Your love and Your will.

SATURDAY - For our Stigmatic Works O Lord, You made Your Church the leaven of Your Kingdom; — we entrust to You all our works and activities. may they be for us a place where we give witness and generous service.

FRIDAY - For the Sick and Suffering Lord Jesus, You chose the cross to be the instrument of Your redemption; — we pray for our conferes who are suffering in Your passion, they may feel that they are participating in the apostolate even at this period of their life.

THURSDAY - For Vocations Lord, during Your life on earth, You invited some men to leave all things and follow you; — we pray for those whom You are calling to a life of consecration in our religious family. May our life help them to make a generous and true choice.

WEDNESDAY - For our Missions Lord, You entrusted Your disciples with the task of announcing Your kingdom throughout the world; — we pray for our Stigmatic missions, so that our missionary conferes may be aware of our solidarity, and that they may be for us an incentive for a more open and courageous witness.

STIGMATINE INTERCESSIONS FOR THE LITURGY OF THE HOURS

MORNING PRAYERS

SUNDAY - For Our Congregation You have raised up in the Church religious families, who through their varied charisms have revealed the richness of Your gifts; — assist our Congregation that, so that faithful to the spirit of our founder, we may cooperate with zeal in the building up of Your Kingdom.

MONDAY - For our Community We thank you Lord Jesus for in giving us Your Spirit You continue to create communion among people; — grant that our community life, in the deeds of each day, may become ever more a joyful witness of being sons of the same Father.

TUESDAY - For our Superiors Father, in Your Son, Who was obedient even unto death, You have given us a model in carrying out Your Divine Will. — assist our superiors, so that, through their service, they may help us in our search for your will and in following it faithfully.
